

HSW

Preserving
Your History
Since 1929

Eames House
Society Archives
Exhibition Hall
Alf Evers Park

20 Comeau Drive
PO Box 841
Woodstock, NY
12498

E-mail

woodstockhistory
@hvc.rr.com

Website

www. woodstockhistory.
org

Telephone

845 - 679 - 2256

Historical Society of Woodstock

Collects, protects and makes available the history of Woodstock, New York

2010

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Category	Dues	Benefits
Individual	15	Voting at special meetings, newsletter, advanced email announcements, and membership recognition.
Household	25	Voting at special meetings, newsletter, advanced email announcements, and membership recognition.
Supporting	50	With the above, 10% discount on merchandise in the Eames House gift shop.
Business	100	With the above, 10% discount on the rental of Eames House exhibition hall and meeting room.
Donor	250-499	With the above, current Historical Society of Woodstock publications.
Patron	500-999	With the above, a giclée print from the Society's archives.
Benefactor	1,000	With the above, dinner with the board at a Woodstock restaurant.

Please consider us for gifts of stock, bequests and/or your corporate matching contribution plans.

Please, cut along the line. Mail the completed application and your check to the address at the bottom of this form.

Application Form

Name _____

Street address _____

Town, State, Zip Code _____

E-mail _____

Phone _____

Would you like your membership to be acknowledged in the Society's newsletter and website?

Yes ___ No ___

Which of the following Society areas interest you?

Archives _____ Community Outreach _____
Eames House _____ Exhibits _____
Events _____ Promotion _____

✓ Membership category

Individual _____ Donor _____

Household _____ Patron _____

Supporting _____ Benefactor _____

Business _____ Amount Enclosed $ _____

Make your checks payable to:
Historical Society of Woodstock

Mail to:
Historical Society of Woodstock
PO Box 841, Woodstock, New York 12498